(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

This application for United States Patent was unavoidably abandoned. A final Office Action was mailed by the USPTO on October 16, 2002. On April 16, 2003, counsel for the applicant filed a Notice of Appeal along with a Petition for a Three Month Extension of Time and the Necessary Filing Fees.

Subsequent to filing the Notice of Appeal, the applicant entered into bankruptcy proceedings and on August 26, 2003 Exodus Capital LLC received a court order that among other things, authorized them to take any action necessary to preserve the value of the applicant's collateral, which included the present application.

On September 12, 2003, Exodus Capital, LLC was informed by the counsel at the time, that they were withdrawing from representation. Exodus Capital, LLC then sought new counsel and selected the present law firm - LAVA Group Law by Smith & Frohwein.

Upon docketing of the new files, the present counsel discovered that an Appeal Brief was never filed for this case and immediately filed a Request for Continued Examination on November 11, 2003.

On December 11, 2003, the Office mailed an Official Communication indicating that the appeal was dismissed for failure to file an Appeal Brief and that the application was abandoned. The Office mailed this Official Communication to the previous counsel rather than the present counsel.

On January 9th, the present counsel received the Official Communication from the previous counsel, instructed Exodus Capital LLC regarding potential options and requested approval to take action. Exodus Capital LLC has now obtained approval to continue prosecution of the application.

Thus, the entire time from the abandonment of the application to the filing of this petition was unavoidable due to the various circumstances (a) bankruptcy proceedings, (b) withdraw of previous counsel, (c) identification of new counsel, and (d) transfer of files to new counsel. The Offices granting of this petition is greatly appreciated.

Petition to Revive

The applicant respectfully petitions the United States Patent Office under 37 CFR 1.137(a) to revive this above-identified United States Patent Application because the abandonment of the application was unavoidable.

The Office mailed an Official Communication on December 11, 2003 indicating that the above-identified United States Patent Application was abandoned for failing to timely file an Appeal Brief. The applicants attach Petition for Revival (form PTO/SB/61) setting forth the detailed reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.

In this communication to the Office, the applicant submits the following items:

Petition for Revival PTO/SB/61;

Fee Transmittal Sheet;

Credit Card Authorization to charge the necessary fees; and Reply to October 16, 2003 Office Action.

A Request for Continued Examination was filed with the Office on November 11, 2003.

Amendments

Please amend the claims as follows:

Claims 1-41. (canceled)

Claim 42. (currently amended) A system for recording music, comprising:

a plurality of user stations at dispersed customer locations, the user stations including means for receiving and recording transmitted music selections;

a control system blanket transmitting music selections to the user stations; and a communications link between the user stations and the control system to verify to the control system when selected particular music selections from the blanket transmitted music selections have been chosen for being recorded; and wherein the control system includes means for billing the customer locations for the particular music selections that are recorded.

- Claim 43. A system according to claim 42, wherein each of the user stations includes a graphical user interface to help customers select music selections for recording.
- Claim 44. A system according to claim 43, wherein the graphical user interface identifies music selections by artist, title and category.
- Claim 45. A system according to claim 43, wherein each of the user stations includes a storage means for initially storing the transmitted selections.
- Claim 46. A system according to claim 45, wherein each of the user stations includes means for the customer to preview the stored music selections at no charge, and thereafter to decide whether to purchase a permanent copy of the previewed music selections.

Claim 47 A system according to claim 42, wherein when the customer decides to purchase a music selection, the graphical user interface prompts the customer to insert a recording medium into the user station.

Claim 48. A system according to claim 42, wherein the customer locations are customer households.

Claim 49. A system according to claim 42, wherein each user station includes a compact disc writer for recording the selected music selections.

Claim 50. A system according to claim 42, wherein the control system includes a database for storing a plurality of addresses, each of said locations being associated with one of said addresses.

Claim 51. A system according to claim 42, wherein the control station includes means to update music pricing at any time.

Claims 52-97. (canceled)

Remarks

The applicant's respectfully submit that each of the issues raised by the Office in the October 16, 2003 Official Communication are fully addressed by the provided amendments and the following remarks. Therefore, applicant respectfully requests the Office to enter these amendments and issue an allowance for the amended claims.

Claims 1-41 and 52-97 have been canceled. The remaining claims, claims 42-51 have been rejected by the Office under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 5,557,541 to Schulhof et al. and U.S. Patent Number 5,418,713 to Allen. Claim 42 is the only pending independent claim with claims 43-51 depending either directly or indirectly from claim 42.

With regards, to claim 42, the applicant submits that the cited references to not describe, suggest or teach each and every element of the claim. For instance, claim 42 recites a control system that blanket transmits music selections to a plurality of user stations. Claim 42 has been amended to more clearly indicate that this blanket transmission occurs independent of the particular music selections that are "chosen" for recording. The control system is not aware of which music selections will be chosen by the user station. Thus, a communications link must be used to notify the control system that a music selection has been recorded. The references cited by the Office deal with a system that identifies to a central storage facility which songs are desired and then, the central storage facility "selectively" transmits the music selections and already has knowledge of the billing information.

The applicant respectfully submits that claim 42 is clearly allowable over the cited references. If the Office does not agree with the applicant's argument, the applicant's respectfully request the Office to point out the specific portion of the references that disclose such aspects.

With regards to the remaining claims, claims 43-51 either depend directly or indirectly from claim 42 and, because claim 42 is in condition for allowance, the applicant submits that these claims are also in condition for allowance.

On November 11, 2003, applicants' submitted a credit card voucher for $1390.00 to cover the cost of filing the RCE ($385) and a 5 month extension of time ($1005). Applicant's submit with this response a credit card authorization for $55.00. Applicant requests the Office to charge the necessary fees and credit any overpayments to the credit card number identified in the attached authorization.

Conclusion
